

FROM THE COMMUNITY SCHOOL CORNER

Hi! My name is Michele Hackshaw, and I want to introduce myself to you. I work as the Community School facilitator for Owings Mills Elementary. As part of my role, I am responsible for identifying the school community's needs, conducting asset mapping, and creating strategies to find resources that meet those needs.

The Community School Facilitator is pivotal in providing invaluable assistance to families and the wider community. The community school facilitator bridges the school and surrounding neighborhood by fostering strong connections and partnerships. This position collaborates with families to identify their specific needs. It offers various support services, such as access to resources, educational and medical guidance, and assistance navigating community programs. Simultaneously, the community school facilitator actively engages with local organizations, businesses, and stakeholders to bring diverse opportunities and resources to the community.

I am thrilled to be here and eager to take on my new role! I can't wait to learn how to partner and contribute to each other so your family and our school community grow together. As the Community School Facilitator, how can I best contribute to supporting your family?
